

Foundation of the SACRED STREAM

www.sacredstream.org

Foundation of the Sacred Stream Code of Ethics

- Practitioners and certified individuals will conduct client sessions in a professional manner and in an appropriate setting.
- Practitioners and certified individuals will uphold the dignity of the client at all times and to maintain appropriate personal and professional boundaries.
- Practitioners and certified individuals will protect and uphold client confidentiality.
- Practitioners and certified individuals will conduct themselves in a professional and respectful manner in session, towards other practitioners and professionals, and in their daily lives.
- Practitioners and certified individuals will maintain the standards of their profession and will keep up-to-date with relevant material in their chosen professional field.
- Practitioners and certified individuals will accurately represent the training and certification they have received through FSS as well as other training they may have received elsewhere.
- Practitioners and certified individuals agree to actively engage in an on-going personal process of maintaining physical, emotional and spiritual health and integrity.
- Practitioners and certified individuals will maintain a daily meditation or journey practice.
- Practitioners and certified individuals will provide referrals to other qualified professionals when indicated.
- Practitioners and certified individuals will abide by the laws of the land regarding the spiritual counseling practices of Depth Hypnosis, Applied Shamanism, Buddhist Psychology Studies and Integrated Energy Medicine in their Province, State, or Country.